GLIMPSES OF ETERNITY

POEMS by Jo D.

Glimpses of Eternity # 1:

One silent moment, still in the night
Sparks wondrous sights of pure delight:

The awe of an endless starry sky,
The pure joy of a newborn baby’s cry,

All fill the heart with wondrous glee
Beyond what words can say or eyes can see

Unfathomable, profound immensity of infinity
The soul soars forever more longing to be free,

Beyond confines of deep space and time
Glimpses of eternity quietly shine brightly sublime.

Glimpses of Eternity #2

In the immaculate silence of the deep
Where ticking time does dare to sleep

Far beyond the confines of infinity …
Emerge shimmering glimpses of eternity.

Wondrous sparkling splendor brings you to your knees
The heart is struck with beauty while the soul it frees.
